Bachelor of Arts – BA Africana Studies 2nd Major

- To fulfill a 2nd major in Africana Studies, students need to complete 24 credit hours (equivalent to 8 courses). See catalog for more information.
- Please note that while major requirements are important, they constitute just one aspect of your undergraduate degree. To obtain a BA Degree from the College of Arts & Sciences at UNM, students must declare a first major along with a minor (or second major) and achieve a minimum of 120 credit hours in total.
- It is recommended to regularly review your Lobo Trax Report each semester, through Lobo Web, and consult with an advisor from the College of A & S to ensure you are meeting all University Core and College Group requirements. Visit the Lobo Achieve website to meet with an advisor: <https://loboachieve.unm.edu/welcome>
