

KENYA STUDY ABROAD: LANGUAGE, CULTURE, & POLITICS

KENYA, AFRICA

COURSE DESCRIPTION

This program is designed for UNM students who are interested in cultural immersion and experiential learning of Kenya. The program integrates formal coursework such as Introduction to Swahili, Introduction to Africana Studies, African Politics, Comparative Global Societies, Sociology of Black Communities, and Introduction to Black Liberation and Religion, by studying Kenya's urban and rural lifestyles. Students should expect to conduct independent studies exploring the diversity of communities in Kenya.

PROGRAM COST

Total Program Cost: $3,954

Student Payments will pay for this program through the Bursar's Office, with a student deposit due March 15th, 2025 and final payment due on May 1st, 2025.

PROGRAM FEATURES

Students should expect to be housed via hotels and have ample time for personal exploration. Instructional languages include English and Kiswahili during this immersive and eye-opening faculty/ group-travel led experience to various areas of Kenya!

Scan the QR code
for more program information &
application details!

APPLICATION INFORMATION

Program is open to applications until April 15th, 2025 at 11:59 pm, and those who wish to participate do not need to meet a prerequisite in order to take the 3-6 credits of coursework.

DATE

Summer 2025 Faculty/ Teacher-Led Group Travel
May 17 - June 7, 2025; 3-week immersive program in subject areas of Africana Studies, Literature and Linguistics, African languages, and Political Science .

FACULTY

For those interested please contact Peter Mwangi, at njagi@unm.edu.